

WEATHER FORECAST
Fair and very cool again tonight with frost and freezing temperatures. Sunday fair, cool in the 50s.

GOOD EVENING
It's funny how a man can become successful because his wife has a cool, level head on her shoulders.

APPLE HARVEST WELCOME SIGNS ERECTED TODAY

Members of the Fruit Growers' Association of Adams County today erected "welcome" signs along every major highway throughout the county inviting tourists and local motorists to visit orchards in the 17,000-acre fruit belt and view the county's 2,000,000-bushel apple crop being harvested. This is part of the grower-hospitality program conducted each fall by association members.

A number of the fruit growers, under the direction of William Wilson, chairman of the sign committee of the association, this morning tackled the large red and green signs on barns, roadside markets and other buildings along the highways leading to the orchard areas. Wilson said 80 signs were erected.

Early Harvest
Ideal ripening conditions have permitted growers to "spot pick" fresh market varieties for the past several weeks, and President Ralph W. Tyson said the peak of the harvest will continue through next week. The season is advanced by about a week this year and the harvest is expected to be completed in most orchards by Nov. 9.

Tourists began visiting orchards last week and bus loads of out-of-state tourists have visited orchards, processing plants and packing houses this week. Near-drought conditions this summer, followed by heavy rains in October, have encouraged spectacular coloring of fruit and foliage through the mountain sections of the county.

Growers have accelerated their harvesting operations to avoid damage from possible heavy early frosts, and an estimated 3,000 local and migrant fruit workers are employed in the county. Full-scale harvest of the county's York Imperial crop is under way and is being delivered to processors for canning.

Association officials expect several thousand tourists from near-by counties and states to visit the county this weekend to see the harvest and other points of interest. Growers are prepared to welcome visitors to their orchards, and many fruit-growers' homes will be filled with weekend guests who have accepted invitations to see the harvest.

MISS WETZEL, E. J. ALTLAND ARE WED TODAY

Miss Julia Agatha Wetzel, daughter of Mrs. Mariana Wetzel and the late H. Russell Wetzel, Thurmont, became the bride of Edward Joseph Altland, son of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Altland, Bonneauville, in a Nuptial Mass performed at 10 o'clock this morning at St. Anthony's Shrine, Emmitsburg.

The Rev. Fr. Vincent J. Tamoliski officiated with Philip A. Wetzel, brother of the bride; Philip A. Frazer, nephew of the bride, and Thomas Seltzer, cousin of the bride, serving as altar boys. The bride was given in marriage by James D. Wetzel, her brother.

Attended By Two Sisters
The church was decorated with large and small white pompons, ferns and gold candelabra. Mrs. Ernest Seltzer, aunt of the bride, played the traditional wedding marches and accompanied the soloists, James D. Wetzel and Mrs. Bernard Frazer, who sang "Ave Marie," "O Lord I Am Not Worthy," "I Need Thee Precious Jesus," "Panis Angelicus" and "Mother At Thy Feet Is Kneeling" when the bride presented her bouquet to the Blessed Mother at the altar.

The bride's chapel length was of lace and nylon tulle over Skinner satin with a Queen Anne collar. The bodice was jeweled with lace appliques and long sleeves ending in points over the hands. Her veil of tulle and lace fell from a half hat with dainty points glittering with seed pearls and sequins matching the bodice of the gown. She carried an old fashioned bouquet of white pompons and a white satin and lace prayerbook with streamers, a gift made by Sister Ruth Roddy, aunt of the bride.

Others In Party
The matron of honor was Mrs. Bernard Frazer, Gettysburg, sister of the bride. She wore a princess style ballerina length gown of topaz, tridacene taffeta, highlighted by small Salvador brown satin bows over the skirt and sleeves and matching brown satin pumps. She wore a matching headband and

Seven Bail Out But Pilot Brings Crippled Tanker Down Safely

RIVERSIDE, Calif. (AP)—You're flying at 18,000 feet on a routine night refueling mission when it happens. Suddenly, the propeller shaft on the No. 3 engine snaps and the prop blade slashes into the fuselage of your 100,000-pound Air Force KC97 tanker plane.

There's a flash of flame—smoke oozes ominously from the shattered metal. Dangerous fuel vapors fill the cockpit.

You're no longer flying in an airplane. It's a potential aerial bomb that's fused and likely to explode.

7 Crewmen Leap
The aircraft commander, 1st Lt. Donald Wittverongel, a pilot instructor, has to make a quick decision.

"Bail out," Wittverongel orders the crew.

One by one the seven crewmen leap into the night and one by one their parachutes open, then drift silently into a thick cloud layer below.

Wittverongel remains with the plane. Should he jump or fly it down? Somewhere below the clouds are towns—Riverside with a population of 70,000, March Air Force Base.

Gets OK For Landing
Wittverongel sees that the smoke has disappeared. But there still may be fire in the bowels of the ship. He decides to gamble.

The 27-year-old Air Force veteran from Rock Island, Ill., radios March tower for the okay to try a landing and gets it.

Now he must land the stricken plane alone—a job that normally requires three assistants.

He bores straight ahead toward the base, letting down slowly.

Landing Is Good
Finally he's there and the landing is good. But he jams on the brakes too soon, blowing out three tires. He taxis off the runway and climbs out quickly.

USAF officials at March herald Wittverongel's solo landing as "a masterpiece of airmanship." His decision in safeguarding the lives of his crew and his courage in staying with the plane also are commended.

One Broken Leg
The crewmen landed close together in a potato field south of the base. One officer, 1st Lt. Richard L. Plum, La Mesa, Calif., broke his leg. The others, who were unhurt: 1st Lt. Allison A. Fraicer, Franklin, Pa.; M. Sgt. Cecil E. Buck, Danville, Pa.; T. Sgt. Teddy Hardesty, El Dorado, Ill.; A.2.C. Garland E. Smith, Bakersfield, Calif.; T. Sgt. Frederick Nadroski, Westfield, Mass., and 1st Lt. Douglas L. Johnson, Los Angeles.

How did the blond, slender Wittverongel feel about yesterday's adventure? He shrugged it off.

But last night he and his wife, Lois, left their two small daughters in the care of a baby sister and went out to celebrate his still being alive.

J. I. HERETER RITES WILL BE HELD SUNDAY
Funeral services for J. I. Hereter, 78, E. Lincoln Ave., who died Friday morning at 11 o'clock at the Warner Hospital, will be held Sunday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock from the Bender Funeral Home, Carlisle St., with the Rev. Robert Knechtel, his pastor, officiating. Interment will be in the Evergreen Cemetery.

There will be no viewing at the funeral home but the family will receive friends at the home of the son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. J. Kermit Hereter, 39 N. Howard Ave.

Mr. Hereter, who had operated Hereter's Mill at Knoxlyn for many years, and who since 1924 operated the J. I. Hereter and Son hay business, was a native of Highland Twp., a son of the late Isaac and Otella (Sherry) Hereter.

His father was state senator from the Adams County area at the time of his death and Mr. Hereter also had been active in politics. His mother resided with her family at the Sherry House during the Civil War period. She was 17 at the time of the battle of Gettysburg. What is now known as the Sherry House was the home on the Sherry farm which extended from what is now W. Confederate Ave. to Little Round Top, and was the scene of some of the fiercest fighting of the Battle of Gettysburg.

Mr. Hereter attended a business college in Baltimore and was a member of the Good Samaritan Lodge 336 of the Masons.

Christopher Columbus Still Newsmaker Of Sorts Today

By TOM HENSHAW AP Staff Writer
Christopher Columbus, whose day it is today, has been dead these 450-odd years, but he's still proving to be a newsmaker of sorts.

The old navigator is about to start a minor civil war on Puerto Rico and be acclaimed as a jet age geologist of note.

The civil war of words, not weapons, is due to begin next month when a Cuban professor announces Columbus didn't really land where he is supposed to on the island.

Temper Waxing Hot
The discoverer chanced upon Puerto Rico on Nov. 17, 1493, during his second voyage to America. He didn't stay long and he didn't have much to say about it.

From the sketchy accounts of the landing, two northwest coastal towns—Aguaada and Aguadilla—each has billed itself proudly as the landfall.

In fact, the feuding grew so heated that, on the 400th anniversary of the voyage, the Spanish Navy found it necessary to erect

County Woman Is Injured In Crash

Mrs. Augusta B. Pascoe, 66, of McSherrystown, suffered cuts of the left ear and shock when a car in which she was a passenger was involved in an accident at 11 o'clock Friday night in Hanover.

Mrs. Pascoe was removed to the Hanover hospital, where her condition was described as satisfactory. Operator of the car, Paul G. Wege, 20, Hanover, was arrested for reckless driving, after police say his vehicle struck two parked cars.

Police said the parked cars were owned by Robert M. Panabaker, Hanover, and Earl Lawrence, Hanover. Police estimated damage of $400 to each car.

OFFICERS ARE NOMINATED BY FIRE COMPANY

Candidates for offices in the Conewago Fire Co. were nominated at a meeting of the Edge Grove firemen Thursday night. The election will be held at the November meeting.

Nominated for president were: Eugene Smith, Gerald Smith and Joseph Hemler; first vice president, Rodney Little and Raymond Moore; second vice president, Guy Senti and Mark Brady; secretary, Donald Sneringer; treasurer, John Post; chaplain, Rev. John P. Bolin; chief, H. Carroll Sneringer; assistant chief, Thomas Miller and Raymond Wagaman; trustee for three years, Joseph Klunk and Ralph Oaster. Additional nominations may be made at the November meeting.

Erecting Fire Hall
President Raymond Timmins asked all members to "help out" evenings and Saturdays to expedite construction of the new fire hall. Proceeds from the recent stag party were placed in the new fire hall fund.

John Sneringer was reinstated as an active member of the company. Three new applications for membership were received. Plans were announced for a shooting match to be held on a date selected by the committee comprising Jerry Sneringer, Raymond Moore and Clyde Swartz.

Because of the Harrisburg-Delone football game occurring on the same night of the next regular meeting the firemen voted to hold their next meeting Friday, November 1.

Named as the social committee were Donald Smith, Ralph Oaster, Clyde Swartz and H. Carroll Sneringer.

HONOR GUARD TO MEET
The Honor Guard of the Albert J. Lentz post of the American Legion will meet Monday evening at 8 o'clock at the post home on Baltimore St., Commander John A. Guise announced today.

County Flier To Be Jet Fighter Pilot

Lieut. George F. Myers, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph E. Myers, East Berlin R. 2, is at the Webb Air Force Base, Big Spring, Texas, where he is undergoing the basic phase of his jet fighter pilot training.

Lieutenant Myers is receiving transition, formation, and instrument flight instruction in the Lockheed T-33 "T-bird." He will also study academic courses covering T-33 engineering, celestial navigation, weather, and many other courses.

Myers reported to Webb following his recent graduation from Moore Air Base, USAF Civilian Contract Primary Flying School.

He is a 1952 graduate of East Berlin High School and from Penn State University in 1956. He received his commission in the Air Force following combination of four years of AFROTC training at Penn State.

WEDS TODAY AND GOES WEST FOR HIGH FFA HONOR

Miss Hilda Mae Grove, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Shank Grove, Hanover R. 4, this morning at 10 o'clock received the bride of Richard Kuhns Herr, son of Harold M. Herr, Gettysburg R. 5. Following a reception at the new fire house at Bonneauville, the couple left for Kansas City, Missouri, where the bridegroom next week will receive one of the highest honors that can be won by a young farmer.

The young couple at Kansas City will be among hundreds of young people gathering there for the National Future Farmers of America convention at which Richard Herr will be among the recipients of the "American Farmer Degree," top award given to the outstanding young farmers of the nation. He will be the fifth Adams Countyman to receive the American Farmer Degree, he was the first Adams Countyman to win the regional star farmer award from the state FFA, and in 1954 he was awarded the Keystone Farmer Degree by the Pennsylvania Future Farmers of America. Last year he was secretary of the state Future Farmers of America.

As part of the information provided to the national FFA when his name was submitted as an applicant for the national honor it was noted that the youthful farmer cleared over $12,000 through his farming program carried out while undergoing his high school agricultural course at New Oxford High School. He graduated from New Oxford High School in 1955.

Bishop Officiates
The marriage ceremony this morning at 10 o'clock in the Hostetter Mennonite Church, 4 1/2 miles west of Hanover, was performed by Bishop Richard Danner, Hanover R. 1.

For the ceremony the bride wore a white nylon lace over nylon taffeta ballerina length gown with scalloped neckline and long sleeves with points over the hands. She carried a white Bible with a white lace handkerchief aloft.

Her sister, Miss Mary Louise Grove, was maid of honor. She wore a blue nylon shadow lace ballerina length gown with sweetheart neckline.

150 For Reception
Bridesmaids were Miss Lucille Bollinger, Marion, Pa., who wore a pink nylon shadow lace ballerina length gown with sweetheart neckline and Miss Lvyne Hauck, Mt. Wolf, who wore a similar gown of lavender nylon show lace.

Daniel Ness, Hanover R. 3, a cousin of the bridegroom, was best man. Ushers were Clair Herr, Gettysburg R. 5, brother of the bridegroom, and Eugene Musselman, Gettysburg R. 3.

At the Bonneauville fire house this morning approximately 150 guests were present for the reception after which the couple left for Kansas City. For her going away costume the bride wore a pink brocade taffeta dress.

To Live In Maryland

The bride attended the Lancaster Mennonite School.

Upon their return from the wedding trip to Kansas City for the

ARTS, CRAFTS DISPLAY WILL OPEN SATURDAY

The largest exhibition of arts and crafts in the county is scheduled to be on display Saturday and Sunday from 10 a.m. to 10 p.m. each day in the library at the Albert J. Lentz American Legion post home, Baltimore St.

The annual free exhibition sponsored by the Arts and Crafts Guild of Adams County will be set up this evening by a committee headed by Mr. and Mrs. Earl A. Dely, East Berlin R. 2, general chairman for the year.

Oil paintings, hand weaving, water colors, china painting, ceramics and metal work turned out by county artists and craftsmen will be included in the display.

More Display Space
Last year every frame set up in the large library room was filled with paintings both oils and water colors, and other art objects made by the county artists. This year two additional frames have been set up the length of the room with the hope that the additional display space will be sufficient for the expected large amount of objects scheduled for the exhibition.

The Arts and Crafts Guild has issued a general invitation to the public to "bring your family, tell your friends, come in, stroll around at your leisure and view our work."

A visit with the artists. Three prizes will be awarded each day Saturday and Sunday.

Members of the committee arranging the display in addition to Mr. and Mrs. Dely are Mrs. Eugene Stetter, Richard Krick, Ernest Krape, Russell Norgan, Mrs. Robert Kleppinger, Mrs. Marge Przygodzinski and Mrs. John Maring.

$640 Damages In Truck-Car Crash

Damage totaled $640 when a Minner's Store truck operated by Robert Paul Boyer, 17, of 22 Fourth St., and a Chevrolet sedan operated by Bernard F. Sprinkle, 48 Fairfield R. 2, collided near the borough line on Steinwehr Ave. Friday afternoon at 1:35 o'clock.

Borough police said Boyer was parked and after a large truck, headed south, had passed, attempted a U-turn in the path of Sprinkle's sedan.

Damage was estimated at $190 to the truck's left rear fender while the front of the car had $450 damage. No one was injured.

REV. MACASKILL WILL ADDRESS BANK DINNER

Rev. Robert A. MacAskill, pastor of the Gettysburg Presbyterian Church will be the speaker Thursday, October 24, at the annual shareholders' dinner of the First National Bank of Gettysburg, Edmund W. Thomas, president of the bank, announced today. The dinner will be held in the Hotel Gettysburg.

Rev. Mr. MacAskill will have as his subject "The Investment and Dividends of Life."

A native of Des Moines, Iowa, he is a graduate of the University of Dubuque, and received his theological training at Princeton Seminary at Princeton, N. J.

Came Here From Athens, Pa.
Upon graduation from the seminary in 1946 he assumed pastorate of the Athens Presbyterian Church where he served until his call to Gettysburg Presbyterian Church this spring.

He has served as president and secretary of the Valley Ministerial and Athens Ministerial Associations and is past moderator of the Lackawanna Presbytery.

He has been a commissioner to two General Assemblies of the Presbyterian Church, at New York in 1953 and Los Angeles in 1955. He also served as the Valley Ministerial Association's radio secretary and was a moderator of the radio program: "The Valley Forum" and commentator on a weekly radio program, "Religion In The News."

He is a past president of the Athens Rotary Club, served as public relations chairman of the General Sullivan Boy Scout Council and as chairman of the Athens Recreation Commission.

Presbyterians Will Install WF Leaders

Leaders of the Junior High and Senior Westminster Fellowship at the Presbyterian Church will be installed and dedicated at a brief service during the 10:45 a.m. service in the church Sunday. The pastor, the Rev. Robert A. MacAskill, will be in charge.

These recently-elected officers for the Junior High group will be inducted: Moderator, Philip Beidler; vice moderator, Robert Bigham; stated clerk, David Lott; treasurer, Stephen Stahl and youth budget representative, James Scott. Their advisers are Miss Marcia Hoy, Gary Bechtel and Mrs. MacAskill.

Senior High officers are: Moderator, Jean Wells; stated clerk, Ann McIlhenny, and treasurer, Frank Skidmore. Their advisers are Mr. and Mrs. Richard Bruce and the Rev. Mr. MacAskill.

The "coffee hour" after the morning service will be resumed Sunday in Fellowship Hall and at 7:30 o'clock Sunday evening the Fellowship meetings will be held. They will continue on alternate Sunday evenings.

MANY SEEKING DEER PERMITS

More hunters than ever will roam the woods if Adams County, and Pennsylvania in search of deer this fall.

At least that is the opinion of County Treasurer Jacob G. Appier, who has been doing a "landoffice" business in hunting licenses the last few weeks.

Of 2,200 doe licenses sent by the state to the county treasurer for distribution, 1,700 have already been secured by hunters, leaving only 500 still to go.

And Appier expects the doe license business locally to increase, with reports that some counties have already sold out the doe licenses allotted them.

Added to the doe licenses are 280 bow and arrow hunting permits issued earlier this season.

And 1,400 regular buck hunting season permits have already been granted by the county treasurer, who sold out all of the original 1,150 buck season hunting licenses allotted to him, ordered 500 more, and now has 250 remaining—but is ordering more.

The Adams County 4-H Baby Beef Club will meet Wednesday evening at 7:30 o'clock at the home of Philip and Ruth Ann Nace, Hanover R. 5. Association County Agent Fred H. Attinger announced today.

DRIVER'S HAND CAUGHT IN DOOR; HIT-RUN CRASH

Roy V. Runk, 48, Cashtown, was trapped in his car two miles east of Bonneauville on the Hanover Rd. at Square Corner when his auto upset at 3:10 o'clock this morning after having been struck by a "hit and run" motorist.

State police said Runk was driving west in a Packard sedan when an unknown east-bound motorist swerved across the highway, struck the left side of the Runk car and continued on without stopping.

The Runk sedan rolled over and Runk was trapped in the car. His right hand was caught in the left front door.

He was unable to extricate his hand until a passing motorist stopped and assisted him.

The motorist then took Runk to the Warner Hospital where he was treated for lacerations. Damage to Runk's car was estimated at $200.

State police today continued their search for the hit-and-run driver.

Arrest Sailor
The accident was one of two investigated by state police, who also, during the night, arrested an AWOL sailor in a stolen car at 9 o'clock on the Idaville-York Springs Rd. who fled from the Carlisle area after failing to pay for gasoline at a service station.

The other accident occurred at 8:06 o'clock Friday night seven miles north of Biglerville on the Carlisle Rd. Police said Wardney E. Dove, 23, Gardners R. 2, was driving a Hudson sedan south and swerved into a parked car owned by Robert Weidner, 19, Gardners R. 2. Damage was estimated at $50 to each car. Dove was placed in jail on a charge of driving while under the influence.

Stole An Auto
Police said Neil Lance Gardner, 19, of Lebanon, AWOL from the Navy, stole a 1953 Chrysler from a used car lot in Lebanon on Tuesday.

Earlier Friday night the youth purchased some gasoline at a station near Carlisle and drove off without paying. A chase was immediately instituted and state police were alerted by radio. They found the sailor traveling on the legislative route between Idaville and York Springs and took Gardner into custody. He was placed in the Adams County jail pending further investigation to determine which county will first bring charges.

$9,270 GIVEN TO CHEST DRIVE

Forty-two per cent of the $22,000 goal of the Gettysburg Community Chest has been collected so far, Gordon J. Webster, fund drive chairman, announced today.

When the office in the Travel Council, Carlisle St. closed Friday night, $9,270.25 had been received for the fund which supports six local organizations, Webster said.

He added that he anticipates that the fund will reach or exceed the half-way mark by Monday night, basing his opinion on reports of sums collected but not as yet turned in to the office.

The chest office will be open until 6 p.m. today. Monday the office will be open from 5 to 9:30 p.m. in the evening.

Sixty-nine of the 209 solicitors conducting the door-to-door campaign have reported.

"The solicitors have told us of an unusually warm reception by everyone they have called upon," Webster said.

"Some people have not waited for the solicitors to call on them. They have turned in their donation direct at the office. We greatly appreciate the manner in which residents are receiving our solicitors."

Community Chest locally provides support for the Boy Scouts, Girl Scouts, Recreation Association, Library, Civic Nursing Association and YWCA.

"Litterbug" Fined By Local Justice

James William Poland, R. 4, paid a fine of $25 and costs before Justice of the Peace Robert P. Snyder Friday night on a charge of throwing a beer bottle on a public highway. The charge was laid by Cumberland Twp. Policeman Bernard V. Miller. Poland told the justice he had seen the policeman approaching and fearing he would arrest him for drinking in the car, threw the bottle on the highway.

Miller also charged Richard Thomas Fitz, Emmitsburg, with reckless driving before Justice Snyder. Fitz paid a fine of $10 and costs after pleading guilty.

LIONS TO HOST LADIES

Gettysburg Lions will hold a ladies' night meeting Monday evening at 6:30 o'clock at the Moose home, York St. Dr. Frank H. Kramer, professor emeritus of education at Gettysburg College, will speak on "Oriental Rugs."

BADLY INJURED IN GYM CLASS

DANVILLE, Pa. (AP)—An 18-year-old Pennsylvania State University student lay in serious condition in Geisinger Memorial Hospital here today with injuries suffered during a physical education gymnasium class.

Hospital attendants described the condition of George L. Sharp, Drexel Hill, as "quite serious."

They said the youth was paralyzed from the neck down yesterday when he apparently landed on his head or neck after slipping in the air on a trampoline.

Dr. A. H. Griesa, Penn State physician, said the youth landed on the canvas portion of the exercise device and did not strike any hard objects.

He was rushed to the hospital by ambulance from the college 70 miles away.

MARLAN BRANDO
HONEYMOONING
WITH ACTRESS

By JAMES BACON

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—An exotic Indian actress honeymooned today with Marlon Brando after an East-West wedding that almost followed the script of the actor's latest movie.

Anna Kashfi, a 23-year-old beauty, thus became the envy of much of the world's feminine population as she shared Hollywood's most eligible and sought-after bachelor. It also was the first marriage for the actress, whose home in Darjeeling, India, is at the foot of Mt. Everest and the rest of the massive Himalayas.

Brando, 33, first met his bride when she came over here in 1955 to portray a Korean schoolteacher in the movie "Battle Hymn." The two dated occasionally but became serious only within the last six months.

Caught Off Guard

The secretive Brando caught Hollywood wife off guard with the simple marriage ceremony, performed at the home of his aunt in suburban Eagle Rock late yesterday afternoon.

At first, he didn't even want to announce the wedding, maintaining that his private life "is strictly my own," but then he relented to give the story to a friend or two among the press.

Only immediate relatives, including Marlon Brando Sr., were present at the brief ceremony, performed by the Rev. Walter J. Fiscus, pastor of the non-denominational Little Brown Church of San Fernando Valley.

Miss Kashfi was garbed in the traditional wedding dress of her native land, a pale green sari with a gold fringed white brocade blouse. Her shoes were red, made in the traditional Indian style.

Marlon was dapper and conservative in a dark suit and dark tie.

Brando soon will be seen in "Sayonara," a movie in which he portrays a U.S. Air Force officer who falls in love with and marries a Japanese girl.

Without Publicity

The two honeymooners obtained a marriage license earlier in the week in Riverside, Calif., sans publicity. How that was accomplished is a mystery as Marlon Brando — and there's no other name like it — is the actor's real monicker.

Anna, who co-starred with Rock Hudson in "Battle Hymn" and Spencer Tracy in "The Mountain," has been out of the movies for a year due to an attack of tuberculosis that almost took her life. The couple took off after the ceremony in Brando's car. He said he couldn't divulge honeymoon plans because "I have no idea myself where we'll stop."

He added that he is "very very happy" and his bride had only to smile to reveal how she felt about the whole thing.

master, Stewart N. Long, or assistant, Beaven F. Hanlon, by October 15.

Induction of new Cubs into Pack 84 will also take place in connection with the affair on October 23. Parents having eight-year-old sons wishing to join the Cubs organization, should fill out application forms and return them to Cubmaster Long or assistant Hanlon no later than Tuesday, October 15.

Ocker - Snyder Post No. 321, American Legion, held its semi-monthly session on Thursday evening at the post home, E. King St. Commander Lawrence T. Crouse presided and heard reports from the officers on routine matters. A contribution of $5 was voted to the Adams County Girl Scouting organization. Edwin A. Sell reported for the ceremonial detail committee. The Legionnaires will meet again on Thursday, October 24.

Starts 1,500-Mile
Hike When He's 85

MINEOLA, Tex. (AP)—Spry Uncle Dick Shield turned 85 today, and he greeted the birthday with plans for a unique celebration.

The east Texas octogenarian was ready to start a 1,500-mile hike to Los Angeles, where he expects to arrive by early December after wearing out two pairs of shoes.

"I don't see why I can't make it," he said with a grin. "I got two good feet, two good legs and a light head."

Columbus

One conclusion they can draw now:

Neither Aguada nor Aguadilla is likely to take this lying down.

Columbus made his name as a geologist on the neighboring island of Cuba by noting casually that there were signs of valuable minerals along the Moa River, 450 miles east of Havana.

Nickel Not Gold
Gold was not included among those valuable minerals so Columbus and the Spaniards who followed lost interest.

But the Cuban American Nickel Co. announced recently it expects to produce about 50 million pounds of nickel and 4½ million pounds of cobalt from the Moa River deposits beginning in 1959.

That would make Cuba the largest producer of lobalt in the Western hemisphere, with virtually all of it going to the United States, and boost the American supply of strategic nickel by 15 or 20 per cent.

Both metals are well high indispensable in the era of jets, rockets and satellites.

So, to Columbus, the discoverer, add Columbus, the geologist, unwitting contributor to an age he could never have foreseen.

dorus, Pa., a brother of the bridegroom.

The main altar of the church was decorated with white chrysanthemums and the side altars with multi-colored fall flowers. The children's choir sang accompanied by the organist, Mrs. Bernard Henry.

A reception was held in the Centennial Fire Hall with 150 guests present.

The bride and groom left on a wedding trip to an unannounced destination. Mrs. Bollinger wore a going-away suit of gold tweed with brown accessories and a white orchid. Upon their return they will reside at New Oxford R. 1.

Mrs. Bollinger graduated in 1956 from Delone Catholic High School and is employed in the office of the Middleburg Manufacturing Co. Mr. Bollinger attended Eichelberger Senior High School and served four years in the United States Navy. He is now employed by Donald B. Smith, roofing contractor.

Miss White, Roger Smith Wed Saturday: Miss Dorothy Elizabeth White, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harvey White, Steinwehr Ave., and Roger William Smith, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edgar J. Smith, York Springs, were united in marriage Saturday evening in St. James Lutheran Church. The Rev. Dr. Ralph R. Gresh, pastor the church, performed the double ring ceremony by candlelight.

Couple Is Wed In St. James Sunday at 3:30: Merion D. Bushman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd A. Durbarrow, 101 Springs Ave., became the bride of Allen E. Jennings, son of H. T. Jennings, Chambersburg R. 4, at a pretty wedding ceremony performed Sunday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock in St. James Lutheran Church.

Officiating at the single-ring ceremony were the Rev. Dr. George D. Laird, Dallastown, uncle of the bride, and Rev. Dr. Ralph R. Gresh, pastor of St. James Church.

Two Couples Married At Littlestown: The Rev. Dr. J. M. Myers, pastor of St. Luke's Lutheran congregation near White Hall, had the unusual experience on Saturday afternoon of officiating at two church weddings in the same church just a half hour apart.

In the first ceremony, Garland Ellsworth Leatherman, son of Mr. and Mrs. Minor Leatherman, of Nappanaw, Indiana, was united in marriage with Kathryn Ada Snyder, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clair Snyder, of Littlestown R. 2.

The second wedding was between Samuel Jacob Snyder, son of Mr. and Mrs. Hiet Snyder, Littlestown R. 2, and Doris Elizabeth Bittie, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roy T. Bittie, of White Hall.

Littlestown Scouts Enjoy Weekend Hike: Thirty members of the Littlestown Boy Scout Troop No. 84 and four adult companions participated in the Appalachian Trail hike from Pine Grove Furnace to Caledonia over the weekend.

The following members of the Rotary Club of Littlestown drove the Scouts to Pine Grove Saturday morning: Luther W. Ritter, Cloyd Crouse, Clair Worley, William V. Sneringer, Richard A. Little, Albert W. Schott and Jack Crouse, driving for Stanley B. Stover.

Meatless Tuesdays to be Observed Generally Here: Gettysburg's observance of the first meatless Tuesday in response to President Truman's request was spotty but most of the town seems to be planning to follow the desire of the President that no meat be served on Tuesday and no poultry or eggs on Thursdays to save food for the starving people overseas.

Town Councilmen Vote Selves $25 Monthly Pay: Members of the borough council at their regular October meeting at the engine house Monday night voted to take advantage of a recent law which provides for payment of council members, and set their own remuneration at $25 per month, starting next January 1.

Historians Hear Gettysburg's Only Resident Who Became U. S. Senator: The life of James Cooper, Gettysburg's only resident to become a United States Senator, was outlined Tuesday evening at the first fall meeting of the Adams County Historical Society. George W. Baker, Abbotstown, reading from a paper prepared from files of the Adams Sentinel and other historical papers, told how Cooper came here as a law student in the office of Thaddeus Stevens, became a member of the Adams County bar, later became a Congressman, member of the state legislature, speaker of the state house of legislature and finally U. S. Senator from 1849 to 1855.

Will Dedicate Memorial To Pigeon Sunday: All of the Boy Scout troops and Cub packs in York and Adams County have been invited to attend the dedication ceremony for the memorial to the passenger pigeon to be held Sunday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock in the Pigeon Hill Park, three and a half miles north of Hanover.

BLAME

The easiest thing I know of is to blame someone else for what we have done wrong. In a tragic catastrophe the first thing done is to hunt the "one who is to blame." Usually it is a difficult thing to do. Perhaps someone else, neglected something or failed to do something expected of him.

Blaming someone else usually gets us nowhere. The investigations go on, but the real culprit is rarely discovered. Blame is all too often settled upon someone who is not to blame. We need to blame ourselves more than we do for many a blunder that we try to settle upon someone else.

None of us like to share the blame for something that in no way concerns us, but is often passed to us anyway. The philosophical thing to do, perhaps, is to take the blame and save as much happiness as possible under the circumstances.

We don't have to live too long to realize that life is made up of problems and solutions, and if we face these problems with courage and few complaints, we need not worry as to the solutions. Often they take care of themselves.

Blame is something that is often invented to clear our own selves. But it rarely helps. It doesn't get to the bottom of the trouble, or problem. It's like many a lie that has no existence. We should try not to blame anyone—not even ourselves!

Just Folks

LOVE

Love comes with a smile
At the birth of the day
And bids you to laugh
All your trouble away.

Comes love at high noon
With the draught from the pool
And quenches your thirst
With the water so cool.

Comes love at twilight,
The hours you love best,
And there by your couch
Lulls you sweetly to rest.

From morning to night,
From our birth to the end,
Love is our comfort,
Love is our friend.

The buildings brought from $15 for a small structure over the water valves to over $400 for one of the larger sizes. Barracks buildings brought an average of $350 apiece. Even the flagpole was sold—for $25—with the pole soon to be placed in Caledonia State Park.

Gets Seven Years In Lover's Lane Crimes

NORRISTOWN, Pa. (AP)—A 23-year-old Philadelphia man was sentenced to seven and a half years in prison yesterday as one of two found guilty of a series of "lover's lane" robberies and assaults a year ago.

Judge E. Arnold Forrest ordered the man, Raymond L. Walker, sent to Eastern State Penitentiary. Walker had been found guilty last May, and another man, Traxwell Crosby, 41, Philadelphia, in September, 1956. Crosby has not been sentenced.

Police charged the two held up 15 couples in parked cars in Springfield and Whitmarsh Townships. They were indicted for armed robbery and assault.

SET NEW RECORD

HONOLULU (AP)—The Navy said one of its A3D jet attack bombers, piloted by Lt. Carl J. Ostertag of El Paso, Tex., flew from Alameda, Calif., to Barbers Point Naval Air Station yesterday in 4 hours and 29 minutes. This clipped 16 minutes off the record set last month by another A3D.

IKE PULLS HARD FOR AIR CADETS BUT GWU WINS

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Eisenhower pulled hard for the Air Force Academy football team last night. But his rooting wasn't enough — the Falcons lost to George Washington University, 20-0.

It was the first gridiron contest Eisenhower had seen since becoming President. For that matter, it was his first football game since the fall of 1952 when, as president of Columbia University and a candidate for the White House, he watched Columbia play Army.

Last night at Griffith Stadium the Air Force Falcons made their debut in the East. They are playing their third season of football since establishment of the academy at Colorado Springs, Colo., in 1955.

In theory, Eisenhower was neutral as the Falcons went against the colonials of George Washington. In his box on the 50 yard line were officials of the university, as well as officials of the Academy.

The President tried hard to be impartial. He applauded the Colonials every time they scored and every time they came close to the Falcons' goal line.

But, if you watched him closely, you could tell Eisenhower was pulling for the Falcons, and that he was disappointed that they were shut out. His 41 years in the military service—even though it was spent in the Army—obviously influenced his sentiments.

Eisenhower appeared to enjoy himself thoroughly. He munched peanuts, ate a hot dog and drank hot chocolate.

It was a chilly evening, but the President sat through the first half of the game without a topcoat. He was about the only person in his section of the stadium who wasn't wearing one. Eisenhower gave in at halftime, however, and slipped into a warm camel hair coat.

Like most of the other 12,000 spectators, Eisenhower stayed until the whistle ending the game.

Interior Dept. OK's Three Coal Projects

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Interior Department has approved three more projects designed to prevent flooding of anthracite reserves in Pennsylvania.

The projects are estimated to cost $474,000, the department said yesterday. The cost will be shared equally by the state and federal governments under a 17 million dollar cooperative program.

The projects involved are designed to protect six active mines near Wilkes-Barre, three owned by the Glen Alden Corp. and the other three by the Pennsylvania Coal Co. A third project will divert water now entering the Coalale No. 9 mine of the Coalale Mining Co. near Tamaqua.

BACK IN PRISON AFTER BIRTH OF GIRL WEDNESDAY

LANSING, Kan. (AP)—Martha Satchura, 28, was back in the Kansas Prison today after giving birth to the baby she said was conceived in a tunnel at the institution.

Mrs. Daisy Sharp, superintendent of the state industrial farm for women prisoners, said the 9 pound 1 ounce girl was born Wednesday at a hospital in near-by Leavenworth.

This was 10 months and 11 days after Mrs. Satchura escaped last Jan. 2 along with Thomas Hernandez Cotton, 49-year-old inmate at the prison.

When Mrs. Satchura and Cotton were recaptured in California last May they told officers they escaped so their baby would not be born in prison. They said they had been meeting in a utility tunnel connecting the women's farm with the main prison's boiler room, where Cotton was assigned.

Mrs. Sharp said last month she was skeptical of their story. Mrs. Satchura was pregnant before they escaped.

Prison authorities said Mrs. Satchura's family may take the baby or it may be declared a ward of the court and assigned to a foster home. She cannot keep it. She is serving an indeterminate sentence for disposing of mortgaged property.

MAN'S MOONS

Russian Feat Does Not Prove Accuracy, But Western Science Loses Much Face

THIS TINY MOON, man made in the land of the Soviets, has swished much wind from America's billowing science sails.

Dr. Lloyd Berkner, an American reporter on earth satellites and rockets for the International Geophysical Year group, with others of this body, just happened to be sipping cocktails at the Russian embassy in Washington the evening the Reds sprang the big surprise.

With all the phony enthusiasm with which a defeated tennis finalist jumps the net and raspingly commends his victor with a knuckle crushing hand shake, Dr. Berkner appears to have rendered the quote-worthy congratulations the Russian diplomats had in mind when they first planned the quiet, little party.

Dr. A. A. Blagonravov and his colleagues beamed appropriately and no doubt called for another round of vodka martinis.

DR. JOSEPH KAPLAN, chairman, U. S. National Committee for I. G. Y., was under less social pressure when he gave with:

"I am amazed . . . remarkable achievement . . . the important thing is that a satellite has been launched. They did it and did it first."

"I hope they give us enough information so that our moon watch teams can help learn the scientific benefits."

Early in this project the Red I.G.Y. scientists had agreed to rig their moon with signals that could be monitored at 108 megacycles. Not long ago they suddenly reneged by jumping to two much lower frequencies at which American team equipment is ineffective without extensive modifications.

This suggests that if America ever gets all the details it will be by the same means Russia got our atomic secrets. And I doubt if our Central Intelligence Agency has a spy in Russia with the contacts and the rubles necessary to buy their secret blueprints.

AND THIS raises the question of value. Would these secrets be worth the rubles, not to mention the risk to the agent?

Insofar as the tiny moon itself is concerned, the answer is no. It is no direct threat to American security.

America will soon have one and perhaps a better one. And it will not be a direct threat to Russia. The value of these expensive, tiny, artificial satellites is their function as research instruments in the outer space through which may travel the transoceanic, war head bearing missiles of the future. The nation that first solves the now impossible of that wide blue yonder may produce the first, truly accurate missile — and we should keep ever in mind that an inaccurate weapon is a comparatively harmless (or worthless if it is ours) weapon.

To this extent these moons are indeed more than mere laboratory gadgets for satisfying the combined curiosities of a rather small band of geophysicists.

AMERICA'S TRUE CONCERN is not with the satellite itself so much as with the Russian equipment that put it where it is — all 135 pounds of it some 550 miles high and travelling at an alleged 16,000 miles an hour.

The Pentagon's William M. Holaday, special assistant to the Secretary of Defense for guided missiles, tipped his hand by rushing into print with an instinctive reference to the true root of worry.

He did not think this Russian moon could be accepted as evidence the Russians had a technological superiority in missile and rocket launching developments.

Let us hope his statement is not only right but that it rests upon considerably more than a press conference inspiration for ducking the true issue.

The brutal fact remains that the Soviet moon is said to be six times heavier than the one America is developing; and 550 miles up is indeed a lot of altitude.

THESE FACTS certainly suggest some Russian rocket fuels of unprecedented quality; jets and boosters of original design, and elaborate controls for at least the initial phase of a vast trajectory. But this last means little. It is the ability to control the far end or the hitting end of the trajectory that counts. In this the American Army (not the Air Force or the Navy) appears to have a long range missile that leads all others.

Just how much of this problem the Russians had solved when they earlier announced the perfection of an intercontinental missile, no one appears to know. Certainly their new moon suggests they have capabilities for long ranges without accuracy and perhaps with accuracy.

Finally, no one will ever have a chance to weigh the current Russian moon. It destroys itself upon re-entry into earth's atmosphere. All of which means it may or may not be as astoundingly heavy as announced via Moscow radio. The Russians are notoriously careless with figures when talking to foreigners.

Sipping embassy vodka is a poor way to check them. Hence for Dr. Berkner et al we can only suggest a quiet, studious nook back in the laboratory. That is where the answers will be found.

Admits His Auto Hurt Man Fatally

READING, Pa. (AP)—A motorist from nearby Laureldale was free on bond today after police said he admitted that his auto fatally injured a Schuylkill County man.

The victim, Harold G. Bayer, 38, of Auburn, was killed as he walked along Route 122 near his home yesterday.

Gerald C. Ream of Laureldale surrendered to police later in the day. Police said he told them his car had struck Bayer and he had been driving around since the accident in a daze.

Ream was released in $1,000 bail after a hearing before Alderman William Thompson in Pottsville on charges of failing to stop at the scene of an accident.

STOCKS SUFFER WORST DROP IN OVER TWO YEARS

NEW YORK (AP)—The stock market this week suffered a break equal to the one in the week ended Oct. 1, 1955, the first week following President Eisenhower's heart attack.

To find a worse weekly setback you have to go back nearly 24 years, to the third week of July 1933, in the hectic Depression days of the early New Deal.

An estimated 10 billion dollars was clipped this week from the quoted value of stocks listed on the New York Stock Exchange, based on the fall in the average.

Lowest Since '55

The Associated Press average of 60 stocks this week dropped $8.20 to $159.40, putting the average at its lowest point since March 31, 1955.

Since the first of this year, the stock market's estimated cash drop has been roughly 22 billion dollars, putting the quoted value of all listed stocks down to the neighborhood of 198 billion dollars. The fall-off since Dec. 31, 1956, has been about 10 per cent. The battering the market took this week accounted for more than a third of the decline so far this year. The turnover of shares soared to 15,575,710, or a daily average of 3,115,710. This was the biggest weekly volume since the first post-heart attack week. It placed great emphasis on the decline.

Unsettling News

The week brought the highly unsettling news that Russia had unveiled its space satellite, or "Sputnik," and this created a shaky atmosphere for the market as a whole.

In addition to this, there was a series of unfavorable business news — cutbacks, layoffs, lower earnings, and so on. It became apparent that the traditional autumn pickup in business was just not coming off.

Added to this were a number of technical market factors. There was a combination of profit-taking and tax loss sales. Brokers reported margin calls on Europeans and in other special cases. Chartists saw the market break through "support levels" on the graphs and predicted the market would fall to even lower levels where the decline might encounter resistance.

Follows Steady Decline

The week's fall climaxed a steady drop since July 12 when the market hit its high for 1957, coming mighty close to the all-time bull market high of 1956. Wall Street rooted for a topping of that peak, but it didn't happen. Since then, the market has been haunted by specters which have bothered it all year: Tight money, which has cramped business expansion; and inflation, which has squeezed profit margins.

Says Satellite To Boost C-D Interest

LANCASTER, Pa. (AP)—Pennsylvania's civil defense chief says Russia's satellite will boost interest in civil defense in this country. Dr. Richard Gerstell, state director of civil defense, said yesterday the news of the satellite "was the shot in the arm that America needed to become more conscious of the need for civil defense."

Gerstell made the statement after returning home from a conference with Leo A. Hoegh, federal civil defense director.

MISSOURI OLD GRADS NETTLED

DALLAS (AP)—University of Missouri old grads, here for their team's football game with Southern Methodist, were lunching yesterday to the recorded music of "Old Missouri."

A hotel employee asked Jay Minton, president of Missouri Exes here, if the music could be turned lower. He said it was disturbing folks in the next room.

"Who's meeting there?" asked Minton.

"The A&M Club," he was told. "They're trying to show some movies of last week's football game, and they can't hear a thing."

"We'll turn the music up louder," snorted Minton.

The film was from the game in which Texas A&M whipped Missouri 28-0.

Diphtheria Drive In N. Philadelphia

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—A house-to-house drive is under way today to immunize some 2,100 children against diphtheria in a four-block section of North Philadelphia.

One-year-old Paul Hirschfeld died last Sunday of the disease, the second such death this year. Medical squads from the City Health Department have been vaccinating youngsters in the area after obtaining parental consent. There have been 14 cases of diphtheria so far this year.

WILL USE TV TO KIBITZ SURGERY 117 MILES AWAY

BALTIMORE (AP)—Surgeons 117 miles away will kibitz operations in the Johns Hopkins Hospital operating room next week, getting within three inches of the incision through the magic of television.

By remote, closed-circuit television, members of the American College of Surgeons meeting for their 43rd annual clinical congress at Atlantic City will witness 25½ hours of surgery at Johns Hopkins.

But it will be more than a mere viewing of the operations. On one six-by-eight foot screen, the audience will view the operation in color. On another—black and white—a panel of surgeons in a studio at Atlantic City will discuss the surgery.

Magnifies Picture

The panel, the surgeon performing the operation, and the audience will be in three-way voice contact. The panel will be able to question the surgeon while the audience will be able to question either. The surgeon equipped with a small microphone around his neck will reply as he works.

The color production, sponsored by Smith, Kline and French Laboratories of Philadelphia, will use the firm's new $50,000 improved color camera called "Mirabelle."

The camera views the operation by means of a mirror extended on a movable boom in front of the lens. It can picture the surgery from any angle without disturbing the surgeon and can magnify to the extent that the entire six-by-eight foot viewing screen will show a field of only 2½-by-3 inches.

Warriors Register Stunning Surprise In Topping Favored Mechanicsburg Outfit 20-19

Ben Jones and his up-and-coming Gettysburg High School football squad turned in a stunning upset here Friday night when they turned back the heavily favored veteran Mechanicsburg Wildcats 20-19 in a South Penn Conference game before approximately 2,000 fans, about half of whom were dazed visiting rooters.

It was a give-and-take scoring affair after a scoreless first period with Earl Little's two placements following a pair of Warrior scores in the second period providing the eventual margin.

The 20 points registered by Gettysburg was the highest point total against the 'Cats since the series opened in 1919 and the locals won 54-0 and the surprise definitely eliminated Mechanicsburg as a title contender after being the pre-season favorite. It was only the seventh win for a Gettysburg team in 31 contests in the series.

Neither team could contain the other with any degree of consistency which resulted in the high-scoring affair.

Crist Recovers

Gettysburg capitalized on a break late in the first period to score its first touchdown early in the second frame. Little caught the visitors' napping when he called for Ken Keefer to quick kick on third down from deep in his own territory. Don Heiges, Wildcat safety man, attempted to pick up the rolling ball despite being surrounded by Warriors. He was tackled and when he fumbled, Tommy Crist pounced on the ball on the 23.

Furney ripped through for a first down on the 11 shortly after the second quarter opened. Ken Keefer got to the 3 on a pitchout and then Little faked a pass and ran end for the score after 2:20 minutes. He place-kicked the all important point.

Mechanicsburg came right back for its first tally. After Rupp returned the kickoff to the 27, the visitors moved to the Gettysburg 33 on runs by Gore and Garry Fake. Fake then broke through guard and tackle to race 33 yards to pay dirt. Heiges' placement struck the upright. The TD came after 6:51 of the period.

Little Gets Second

Four minutes later the Warriors had their second TD. The Warriors moved 66 yards for the score after receiving the kickoff. Little and his accurate throwing arm went into high gear as he passed to Ken Keefer for 15 yards to the 'Cats' 37, and another to Rex Baltzley for seven. Furney ripped through for five. On a fourth down option, Little

BROWNS, COLTS PUT RECORDS ON LINE SUNDAY

By MIKE RATHET
The Associated Press

Cleveland's rejuvenated Browns, former undisputed kings of the National Football League, and Baltimore's upstart Colts defend unblemished records tomorrow.

The Browns, sporting a 2-0 record, and leading the Eastern Conference, take on the Philadelphia Eagles at Cleveland. Paul Brown's crew finished fourth last season after languishing at the top of the NFL's Eastern Division for six consecutive years. The Browns are 7½ point favorites to continue their successful comeback.

Baltimore, also 2-0, is the only other undefeated team in the up-set-prone league. After finishing fourth in the Western Conference in 1956-57, the Colts have set their sights higher, but meet a tough Green Bay team. Baltimore has been installed as a one point favorite.

Four Other Games

There are four other games on a full program. The defending champion New York Giants visit Washington, Chicago's Cardinals play at Pittsburgh, Los Angeles goes to Detroit and San Francisco visits the Chicago Bears.

Lou (The Toe) Groza is still producing for the Browns, who have thrown most of the quarterbacking duties to Tommy O'Connell. The Browns depend largely on their defense as do the offensively weak Eagles, who are 0-2 for the season.

With quarterback John Unitas firing passes over the defenders and Alan Ameche and Lenny Moore using the ground routes, Baltimore thumped Detroit 34-14 and the Bears 21-10. Quarter back Parilli will spearhead the Packer offense in the game to be played at Milwaukee's County Stadium.

The Giants will be playing without the services of quarterback Don Heinrich, but Chuck Conerly can fill in more than ably. The New Yorkers are favored by 4½ over the improved Redskins.

Pittsburgh, a team patched together by former Detroit coach Buddy Parker, is a ½ point pick over the Cards.

The Rams and Detroit are pick'em. The bears are 7 over the 49ers.

Next Friday's Games

Gettysburg at Middletown.
Chambersburg at Mechanicsburg.
Hanover at Waynesboro.

A touchdown in the last 15 seconds of play by Tom Good of Hanover followed by Phil Berkheimer's placement boot gave the Nighthawks a 7-6 win over Hershey Friday night at Hanover to give the South Penn Conference leaders their fourth straight.

Carlisle outclassed Waynesboro 21-7 to stay unbeaten.

In non-conference games

Shippensburg surprised Middletown 20-0 while Chambersburg edged favored Windber 20-13.

Heiges raced around end to the 1-yard line and on the next play he plunked over. The score was 14-6 via the placement which split the uprights.

A pair of passes, Heiges to Fisher, advanced the ball to the Gettysburg 20 as the half ended.

Early in the third period Gettysburg attempted a quick kick which carried only to midfield and from that point the Wildcats were goal-bound again. Rupp, Fake and Zimmerman toted the ball, sandwiching a pass, Heiges to Fisher for 10 yards, to reach the 8 from where Fake shot off guard for his second six-pointer. It came after 5:30 minutes. Heiges' placement was wide.

Baltzley Plows Over

It was the Warriors turn now to score and they did. George Mitchell made a fine return to midfield on the kickoff. Little, who plagued the visitors all evening on his option keep end sweeps, picked up 7 yards and Furney added five on two line jabs. Baltzley got four and Furney five before Little passed to Keefer for 10 yards and a first down on the 22. Little faded to pass and then ran for a first down on the 5. Baltzley hammered the line to the 2 and on the next play smashed over after 11:30 minutes of action. Little's placement was wide.

Midway in the last period the Warriors reached the Mechanicsburg 34. Baltzley got one yard and then two Little aerials fell incomplete. On last down Little attempted to pass but was dropped as Mechanicsburg took over on its 30. The Cats opened with a hard-running attack featuring Fake and Heiges with the former registering his third touchdown of the evening from 15 yards out. Heiges passed to Fisher for the point as the visitors trailed 20-19 with four minutes remaining.

It was a fight with the clock, as far as the fans were concerned, the remainder of the way with Gettysburg striving, and succeeding, in keeping possession of the ball.

The Warriors racked up four straight first downs to reach the 16 and were content on simply running time consuming plays as the final seconds ticked off with the ball winding up on the 25.

The victory was one of the finest and most gratifying for Gettysburg in years. To each player plenty of credit is due but the running and throwing of Little cannot escape special mention. It was a greatly improved Warrior team that blocked and tackled well throughout in clearly showing the pushover days of the past are well on their way out.

Next Friday night Gettysburg travels to Middletown to meet the Blue Raiders in another conference battle.

IKE LOGART IS WINNER IN HIS EASIEST FIGHT

By DAVE DILES

DETROIT, Oct. 12 (AP) — Isaac Logart has been ready for several months to fight for the welterweight championship of the world. Last night's victory over unranked Joe Miceli did nothing but improve the Cuban's title chances.

Logart, 22, the second-ranked contender for the title vacated by Carmen Basilio, called it "my easiest fight in a long time."

He stabbed Miceli, 28, with stinging jabs, thudded powerful hooks against the head of his opponent, and generally won just about as he pleased in the 10-round contest that was nationally televised and broadcast.

Logart weighed 147½. Miceli 148.

Yells For Title Fight
His manager, Eddie Mafuz, put up the customary cry for a title fight but specified that his fighter would not meet the No. 1 challenger, Tony DeMarco, if he fought were put in Boston, DeMarco's hometown.

"You can't get a decision there," said Mafuz. "It's impossible. And if you knock him out, they'll find some way to stop the fight."

Mafuz said he sees no reason to hold a tournament to determine a champion. "Logart has beaten everyone — he's No. 2 contender. DeMarco is No. 1. So why not put the two of them in the ring for the title?"

No Knockdowns
Logart, winning for the 51st time in 63 bouts, had the wild-swinging Miceli in trouble several times but there were no knockdowns. In the fifth round, Miceli slipped to the canvas, and in the eighth, Referee Lou Handler took a point away from Logart for a low punch.

Still Logart won handily on the cards of all three officials. Handier had it 47-39, Judge Al Goodman 46-41 and Judge Al Goodman 47-43 under the five-point-must system employed in Michigan.

Big Crowds At Top College Grid Contests
Notre Dame and Army resume their rivalry after a 10-year hiatus and Michigan and Michigan State go at it in their backyard feud today in the two big "money" college football games.

The mythical national championship won't be at stake in either game — since Oklahoma hasn't given up football — but each is expected to draw upwards of 100,000 spectators.

Notre Dame coach Terry Brennan played in the last two Army-Notre Dame games, so this appearance at Philadelphia's Municipal Stadium marks the renewal of an old acquaintance.

Favor Army
Army rates a 6-point favorite, for no fewer than 25 members of the Notre Dame team have been bitten by the flu bug and Brennan said that his club is not quite recovered.

Coach Earl (Red) Blaik of Army said his club is ready. Blaik could stand a victory, for his all-time record against the Irish stands at 2-3-2.

As for Michigan State-Michigan, this one will have a great bearing on the National rankings behind Oklahoma.

Sooners Seek No. 43
State is second-ranked in this week's Associated Press poll, also is a 6-point favorite.

As for Oklahoma, the Sooners go after No. 43 in a row against Texas. Should the Longhorns, beaten by South Carolina a week ago, win, it would be the upset of the decade.

The toughest assignment of the day appears to be in store for Duke, which would dearly love to win the Atlantic Coast Conference title. The Blue Devils No. 5 meet Rice, which has yet to taste defeat.

Texas A&M (No. 3) goes against Houston, while Minnesota (No. 4) plays Northwestern. Oregon State (No. 7) goes against Idaho, Iowa (No. 8) meets Indiana and Auburn (No. 9) tangles with Kentucky. Army is No. 10.

Near Serious Stage
The conference races are getting down to the serious stage, too.

Among the games which will have some bearing on the league championships are Illinois-Ohio State and Wisconsin-Purdue in the Big 10, Penn. Princeton and Brown - Dartmouth in the Ivy League, Georgia Tech-Louisiana State in the Southeastern Conference, Brigham Young-Utah in the Skyline Conference and Washington UCLA in the Pacific Coast Conference.

In last night's top games, Mississippi held on for a 7-0 victory over Southern Methodist, Georgia 1 showed a crushing ground attack to lick Tulane, 13-6, North Carolina

Delone Outclasses York 41-14 As Coach Tom Carr Sends 50 Players Into Fray

Displaying tremendous power in both the backfield and in the line, Coach Tom Carr's Delone Catholic High School Squires went into a first place tie with the Harrisburg Crusaders in the Central Penn Catholic League when the Red and Blue outfit trounced third place York Fighting Irish 41-14 on the McSherrystown gridiron Friday evening before 3,500 fans. Delone has now run its winning streak to six consecutive games, five of the wins coming this season.

Delone had little trouble in scoring two touchdowns in each of the first three quarters. Coach Carr used a total of 50 players throughout the game with the third and fourth teams dominating play in the second half.

After York had three unsuccessful downs in the opening frame, they were forced to punt on the fourth and Delone took over on the opponents' 49 yard line. On a drive that was headed by Gettysburg's Johnny Gastley, who scampered for runs of 12 and 15 yards, Don Weaver, hard-charging right halfback, crashed over from the one yard line for the first score of the game. Jerry Eline split the uprights for the extra point.

Gastley Races 72
The Squires came right back 2:10 after the first score and hit the goal line once again. Paul Bors, York's outstanding player of the game, booted a 38 yard punt where John Gastley was waiting for it on his own 27 yard line. With perfect down-field blocking, Gastley romped 73 yards and the tally. This time Eline's placement was blocked by line-backer Carl Irons.

In the second frame the Red and Blue team crossed into pay dirt territory twice — on Earl Laughman's 38-yard punt return, and Johnny Gastley's crash off left tackle for 61 yards. Eline booted the placement on the first TD while Larry Hockensmith bolted his way across the line for the second extra point and Delone led at half time 27-0.

Five minutes after the second half got underway Delone was well on its way to another score. This time it was Larry Hockensmith passing a long aerial to Mike Conrad, covering 48 yards, and the fifth TD. Eline once again split the uprights and Delone moved out in front 34-0.

Washington Tallies
Coach Carr's griders tallied their final six pointer seconds before the third period came to a close. Lloyd "Buckey" Washington, another of Gettysburg's fine products, jaunted of right tackle and with two key blocks raced 27 yards to the goal line. Pat Sheaffer ran for the extra point. In the early part of the game, Washington had taken a punt and raced 80 yards to the goal line, but the play was called back to the mid-field stripe due to a clipping penalty.

The York squad broke into the scoring column in the final period when they came up with a pair of touchdowns. Pat Clark, another fast moving York back, skirted wide around left end for 38 yards. Clark also ran the extra point to make it seven points. Seconds later Jim Conner came wide around right end for 35 more yards and the final tally. Bob Dohm added the conversion.

The Gettysburg College freshmen and Mercersburg Academy soccer teams battled to a thrilling 3-3 deadlock in two five minute overtimes here Friday afternoon. A return game will be played later at Mercersburg.

Lina whipped Miami, 20-13 and George Washington turned back the Air Force Academy, 20-0.

York lost two players by injuries. Andy Logue suffered a fractured right leg and Carl Irons a hemorrhage of the right eye as the result of being struck in the face while blocking a kick.

By a mutual agreement, Delone's game, scheduled with Calvert Hall of Baltimore for next Friday, has been cancelled. Delone will play an inter-quad game for the public Thursday evening on the Delone field.

Heavy Army Squad
Army, fielding its heaviest squad in years, averaged 207 pounds in the line and 190 in the backfield. Dave Bourland, 21, El Paso, Tex. quarterback, is the key man in Blak's high powered offense.

Both teams will operate out of the split T formation and use mostly 5-2 and 5-4 defensive alignments, changing as the situation demands. Army is considerably improved this season on its outside running, while Notre Dame was expected to take full advantage of Williams' fine passing. The Pennsylvania has completed 50 per cent of his tries thus far in 1957.

Lower Merion String Snapped
NORRISTOWN, Pa. (AP) — A 32-game unbeaten scholastic football record was shattered last night when Norristown defeated Lower Merion 7-6 in a Philadelphia Suburban One League game.

When Lower Merion missed the extra point after pushing across a touchdown in the third quarter, it experienced its first setback since it lost to Abington 19-13 on Oct. 16, 1953.

The losing team had won 29 straight victories since a 6-6 tie with Upper Darby late in 1953. Other area long-streak winners, Ridley Park and Swarthmore, ended records of 32 and 28 unbeaten games last week. Collingdale topped Ridley Park and Neither Providence dented Swarthmore.

The margin of victory for Norristown came with Gene Bishop's placement; after a 13-yard slice through the middle in the early moments of the game. Norristown put up a tremendous goal line stand in the final quarter to retain its record unblemished at 4-0.

Both tailback Tom Morris and quarterback John Sapoch have recovered from opening day injuries two weeks ago and will start.

Both missed last Saturday's 46-7 rout of Columbia.

Fullback Fred Tiley and wingback Jim Motley will fill out the backfield for the Tiger.

Princeton has won its two games this season while Penn has lost both its games, to Dartmouth and PPenn State.

FAVOR ARMY TO BEAT IRISH IN TOP TILT TODAY

By RALPH BERNSTEIN

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — Army's Black Knights found themselves in the strange role of six-point favorites over Notre Dame today as the two unbeaten, united rivals renewed football relations after a 10-year cooling off period.

Upwards of 100,000 fans were expected in huge Municipal Stadium for the 1 p.m., EST, kickoff with countless thousands of others watching the game on television — it's the NCAA's Eastern regional TV game of the day.

Army hasn't often been the favorite in this bitter rivalry which was terminated in 1947 with Notre Dame owning a 23-7 edge. Four games have wound up in ties.

Coach Earl "Red" Blak's Cadets apparently have been established the favorite on the basis of their easy triumph over tough Penn State last weekend.

Bushed By Flu
Notre Dame, bushed by a squad about with the flu during the last week, and playing without Capt. Ed Sullivan at center, and star halfback Aubrey Lewis at halfback, both injured, was counting on a stubborn defense to withstand the offensive brigade of the Army. The fighting Irish, winners over Purdue and Indiana, have not been scored on.

Coach Terry Brennan held a secret workout near his squad's suburban motel retreat yesterday. Ironing out the new wrinkles planned for today's game. Brennan, 39, himself a star in previous Army-Notre Dame games, said his lads had not fully recovered from the flu epidemic which struck 25 of them, including half of the first team.

"However, we haven't had any new cases and we're hoping for the best," said the youthful mentor now in his fourth season as Irish coach. Notre Dame, averaging 201 pounds in

County Agent Advises New Grains Be Fed Fowl Slowly

By FRANK ZETTL
County Farm Agent

When can you start feeding new grains to poultry? That's an annual question as the farm supply of well-cured old grain gets low or becomes exhausted.

It is generally assumed that well-cured grains are much safer to feed from the standpoint of digestive upsets. Grain that is dry enough to grind well is felt to be sufficiently well cured. Many poultrymen report feeding new grain immediately after threshing without harmful effects, if the birds are accustomed gradually to the new grains, and a period of about two weeks is used to increase the volume of a new grain to its normal amounts. It is considered that uncured grain is most treacherous when in the "sweating" stage. New grain kept in bags, set by themselves, cures faster than grain in large bins.

Some farmers report digestive disturbances and blue combs on chickens after feeding new grains, but then can be caused by a contagious epidemic which is commonly referred to as "blue comb or pullet disease." For that reason new grain is blamed for a lot of trouble it does not cause.

New corn is often fed on the ear to chickens and turkeys as soon as it is husked without any apparent ill effect, if limited amounts are fed at first. If poultrymen depend on large amounts of uncured grains to make up the daily ration there can be digestive trouble. Some turkey growers husk the corn from standing stalks onto a manure spreader and then spreads the ear corn on the turkey range by putting the spreader in gear. Many chicken and turkey growers allow their birds to harvest buckwheat with satisfactory results.

Thus it appears that getting poultry accustomed to new grains and feeding limited amounts, especially when the grain is still in a sweat, are important practices to follow.

Cow Has Her Worries Too
Even cows are subject to "stress" disease problems.

Many high-producing dairy cows are stricken with "ketosis" within 10 to 90 days after their calves are born. Many farmers do not recognize the great amount of energy used by the highly-productive cow at the peak of milk output and many do not understand the great amount of feed a cow requires if she is to produce at her maximum.

Ketosis usually is caused when the cow does not receive balanced nutrition to maintain both her weight and full milk production. It could also be a secondary condition resulting from a disease which suppressed the appetite and reduced feed consumption. Symptoms include loss of appetite, constipation, depressed appearance, a staring expression, rapid loss of body weight, and a drop in milk production. The sick animal also may show signs of incoordination. Some cows may become lethargic; others may be excitable.

Method of treating the disease depends upon whether the veterinarian's diagnosis shows that the ketosis condition is primary, or a secondary result of another disease.

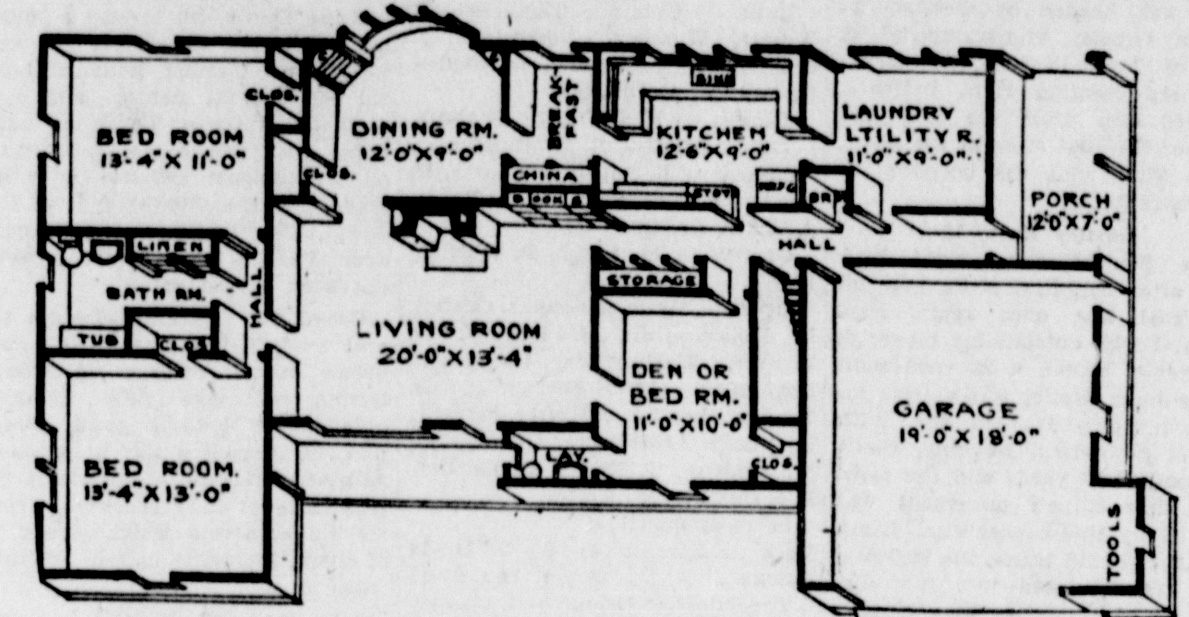

Cows susceptible to ketosis should be put on a high energy level diet with sufficient protein in late pregnancy, and the energy intake gradually increased after the calf is born. A drastic change in environment should be avoided to lessen the stress on the cow.

Urges Control Of Wintercress
Spraying new seedlings of alfalfa and clover with MCP will control wintercress. Wintercress is a biennial or perennial member of the mustard family that can raise havoc in the meadows and pastures next spring unless it is controlled.

Immediate spraying is recommended if the grain stubbles have been clipped, or if a final cutting of hay has been made. If the alfalfa or clover is too tall, wait until after the first heavy frost to do the spraying because the hay will cover the young wintercress plants and keep the spray from reaching them.

Farmers ought to know what young wintercress plants look like

The Francis—Ideal For Suburban Or Country Living

Rooms Seven
Bedrooms Three
Closets Five
Cubage 32,000
Dimensions 66'x32'

Measuring 66'x32', "The Francis" has a cubage of 32,000 feet. An 80' minimum lot is recommended for building the house and attached garage.

A clapboarded exterior, as in the illustration, carries out the simple architectural lines of this type of house and would be particularly ideal if "The Francis" is to be built in the country, or in a suburban residential area.

The recessed porch offers weather protection to visitors to "The Francis." There is no entry hall included in this plan, for the front door so that effective control can be started when it will do most good. Moss effective spray to use, without damaging the alfalfa or clover, is MCP at the rate of one pint in not over seven gallons of water per acre. It is always more effective to do the spraying in early fall when the plants are mature.

opens directly into the large, attractively planned living room. The fireplace in the back wall and the beautiful picture window in the front wall, facing the porch, are the two focal points of interest in this living room, and to them goes much of the credit for the charm of this 20'x13'4" room.

Reached by a door from the living room as well as by one from the hallway, the den or bedroom contains one window looking out on the front yard. Measuring 11'x10' this room contains a large closet in the corner where the front wall joins the right wall.

With equal ease this room can be used as a den or bedroom; if preferred you could reserve it for overnight or weekend guests. The attached lavatory makes the room especially suitable as a guest bedroom.

Long and narrow, 12'6" x 9' in dimensions, the kitchen is carefully planned to save the housewife's precious steps. The working counters, with cabinets, above and below, are arranged in a U-shape extending from the doorway to the utility room, in the right wall, along the back wall and up to the entry to the breakfast nook, in the left wall.

Actually a room by itself, the breakfast nook can also be used for family luncheons or early suppers for the youngsters; thus saving the dining room for more formal occasions.

Dining Room Bay

Measuring 12'x9', the dining room seems larger than its actual dimensions because the bay in the back wall gives the illusion of greater size; this bay also greatly adds to the decorative appeal of the room from both the house interior and exterior. Your dining room set should be placed near the bay to take advantage of the view as well as the light and sunshine coming through these windows.

The further left wing of the house is occupied by two bedrooms, separated by the all modern bathroom. Measuring 13'4" x 11' in dimensions, the back bedroom is assured of good lighting and cross ventilation, for it has windows on two exposures. Largest of the bedrooms, the front bedroom is 13'4" x 13' and has two windows—one in the side wall and another in the front wall. This room should be the master bedroom. There is a generous sized closet in the back wall of the room.

At the right end of the house are the laundry utility room, the porch and the garage, connected by the central hallway.

Utility Room

A bright cheerful room receiving light and ventilation through two windows and three doors, the laundry utility room is 11'x9' in measurements. Direct access is provided to the back yard.

The porch, which can be screened or glassed in, if desired, is located next to the laundry. It measures 12'x7' and since it is at the back of the house, this porch could easily be used as an outdoor sleeping room. Since the laundry is located in a first floor utility room in "The Francis," the only "must" installation in the basement, is the heating equipment. This should be placed under the living room. Thus, in this plan you'll have plenty of basement space to use as you see fit.
